Spoke to Flavio Volpe. He spoke to Ford today. Ford said he can't direct the police. He said it's a bridge, it's a border crossing, so it's federal.

Flavio said this isn't a trucker convoy. It's 30 pickup trucks and a Toyota Sonata. It's not a movement, it's a 100 idiots. These are people from a car town turning on their friends and families. Toyota, Ford, Honda, GM – all down. 185,000 Ontarians won't be working tomorrow. Someone has to do something. It's the Highway Traffic Act. They're stopped in the street. Arrest them. Ford didn't promise to do anything. Lots of "I hear you," and pointing to the feds.
